Responsibility Determination Respect

Thursday 23rd October, 2025

To all our Kelsey families,

This morning, Cherry Blossom class were very excited to visit the Pumpkin Patch at Lings Farm. They were able to look at all the different colours and shapes grown there and take home a pumpkin of their choice. They had a brilliant time (despite the wind!) as did Miss Thompson – who was absolutely delighted to find a pink wheelbarrow!

Thank you to the PTA for covering the cost of the mini bus and to Miss Thompson, Mrs Coombes, Mrs French and Miss Lowthian for accompanying the children.

Updates for this week:

Times Tables Rock Stars -

Battle of the Bands will run from Friday (tomorrow) through to Friday in half term. Happy battling!

School Books -

We have been lucky enough to purchase lots of new books for pupils to take home and read. Unfortunately, a number of these are being returned to school damaged. We appreciate that accidents will happen with spillages etc. but please can we ask that good care is taken of these books so that they can be continue to be enjoyed by more children.

And finally –

The children are VERY (VERY!) excited about this evening's Spooky Disco. They have been discussing their costumes for weeks now! An enormous thank you, as always, to our PTA and all their helpers for bringing the disco together – we're very grateful for all the time that goes into putting the disco on. A big thank you also to Mrs Stringfellow, Mr Clinch & Mrs Critten for helping out as well.

Have a lovely half term break, I'm hoping that there'll be some autumnal sunshine to enjoy!

Warmest regards,
Katie Grantham
