A letter from the Children's Commissioner -

As Children's Commissioner, I am writing to ask you to ensure all of your children complete my new survey, The Big Future.

Under the Children Act 2004, it is my role to promote the views and interests of children in England, and I have done this so far by conducting the two largest ever children's surveys: The Big Ask and The Big Ambition.

Now, for the first time, hundreds of thousands of children will be eligible to vote in the next general election, the biggest change to the franchise in half a century. Yet just one in five children say politicians listen to them. That's why I'm launching my final survey, The Big Future.

I want to make sure that I hear from as many children as possible, aged 0-18, from all backgrounds, in all schools and colleges, and in every part of the country. To do that, I need your help

I am asking children about the changes they want to see in their communities, their biggest concerns, and their hopes for the future. More than anything, I want to know what they think a good childhood should look like today.

I will be publishing my findings next year, and they will be used to advocate at the highest level for solutions that children want to see, to the problems that they tell me are most important to them.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Dame Rachel de Souza
Children's Commissioner

SEND spotlight -

During the next few weeks we will be looking at support services available to us in Lincolnshire.

Working Together Team – Support for Families

The Working Together Team (WTT) is a National Autistic Society (NAS) Accredited service that supports schools and families across Lincolnshire. Their role is to help schools understand and meet the needs of autistic children and young people, so every pupil can feel safe, understood, and able to thrive.

Rather than working directly with pupils, the team focuses on building staff confidence and skills, and on working closely with families and professionals to create consistent, autism-inclusive approaches that really last.

As part of their offer, WTT provides a range of free, pre-recorded training sessions for parents and carers. These can be accessed at a time that suits you.

To request access, please complete the Parent Training Request Form using this
